Article 53 The duration of Canadian patents and the rights conferred by them:

(I) The Agreement on Trade-related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights;

(II) The protection of undisclosed information and data exclusivity granted to pharmaceutical products;

(III) Sanctions, damages and costs awarded in relation to the enforcement of intellectual property rights;

(IV) Subject to subparagraph (V), the limitations on the exclusive rights granted to patentees of Canadian patents, including limitations relating to the exclusive rights granted to patentees of pharmaceutical products;

Any amendments to the provisions of the Patent Act of Canada and the regulations made thereunder that are consistent with changes to the international standards set out in subparagraph (IV).

Subject to subparagraph (V), the limitations on the exclusive rights granted to patentees of pharmaceutical products, including the grounds for revocation of patents, and the rights of persons importing pharmaceutical products that are produced under the exclusive rights granted to patentees of Canadian patents.

(V) The flexibilities in the Agreement on Trade-related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights and the Doha Declaration on the Agreement on Trade-related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights.

Any dispute between a Party and an investor of another Party that arises under this Chapter may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with this Section.

Article 54 If a Party adopts or maintains a measure inconsistent with its obligations under Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors), an investor of another Party may submit a claim to arbitration under this Section.

Article 55 The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada are non-conforming provisions to the extent that they apply to measures adopted or maintained by Canada. If Canada amends any of the provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada, that amendment shall not be subject to the dispute settlement provisions of this Agreement.

The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada do not apply to measures adopted or maintained by Canada with respect to sectors, subsectors or activities set out in its Schedule to Annex I. The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada do not apply to measures adopted or maintained by Canada with respect to sectors, subsectors or activities, as described in its Schedule to Annex II, to the extent that any such measure is not inconsistent with the obligations imposed by Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada. The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada do not apply to any existing measure maintained by Canada at the level of government identified in its Schedule to Annex II, to the extent that any such measure is not inconsistent with the obligations imposed by Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada.

Article 107 Decisions about the appointment, promotion, transfer, demotion, discipline, dismissal and retirement of staff members must be taken by the Chief Executive Officer or by a staff member to whom the Chief Executive Officer has delegated authority to do so.

The Chief Executive Officer may delegate authority to any staff member to take decisions on behalf of the Chief Executive Officer. If the Chief Executive Officer delegates authority, the Chief Executive Officer may impose conditions on the delegation, and may withdraw the delegation or amend it at any time. Article 4 of Annex A applies to the delegation of authority by the Chief Executive Officer.

Persons to whom authority is delegated must exercise that authority in accordance with the instructions of the Chief Executive Officer. Subject to Article 4 of Annex A, the Chief Executive Officer may confirm, modify or revoke decisions taken by persons to whom authority has been delegated.

If the Chief Executive Officer is absent or unable to act, the Chief Executive Officer's duties must be performed by a staff member designated by the Chief Executive Officer or, if the Chief Executive Officer has not designated a staff member, by the Chief Executive Officer's deputy.

Additional rules concerning the Chief Executive Officer. When appointing the Chief Executive Officer, the Council must appoint a Chief Executive Officer Selection Committee. The Chief Executive Officer Selection Committee must be composed of the Chairperson of the Council, the Chairperson of the Assembly, the Chairperson of the Court, the Chairperson of the Commission and the Chairperson of the Board of Auditors. The Chief Executive Officer Selection Committee must propose to the Council a list of candidates for the position of Chief Executive Officer. The Council must appoint the Chief Executive Officer from the list of candidates proposed by the Chief Executive Officer Selection Committee.

The Chief Executive Officer must be appointed for a term of seven years. The Chief Executive Officer may be reappointed for one additional term of seven years. The Chief Executive Officer may be removed from office by the Council at any time.

The Chief Executive Officer must be a national of a State Party. The Chief Executive Officer must have the highest level of competence and integrity. The Chief Executive Officer must have at least fifteen years of experience in the management of a large organization.

The Chief Executive Officer must not hold any other position in the Organization. The Chief Executive Officer must not engage in any activity that is incompatible with the duties of the Chief Executive Officer.

The Chief Executive Officer must not receive any instructions from any State Party, from the Council, from the Assembly, from the Court, from the Commission or from the Board of Auditors. The Chief Executive Officer must perform the duties of the Chief Executive Officer in the interests of the Organization as a whole.

Article 108 The Chief Executive Officer must appoint the staff members of the Secretariat.
